

Are you running your business... ...or is it running you?

Jörg Lahmann is an EOS Professional Implementer and an energetic speaker with a lot of passion for the business world.

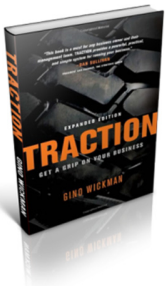

Jörg works with management teams of growth-oriented companies that want to take their organization to the next level. He brings a unique perspective as having implemented EOS in his own company before deciding to help other entrepreneurs and become the first EOS Professional Implementer in Spain.

Jörg's interactive style and knowledge of the business world makes it a mandatory attendance event for all growth-oriented entrepreneurs. The visitors will leave with a completely new perspective of their companies and armed with a set of simple and practical tools that they can use right from the next day on.

” Jörg is an expert in leadership and business and team management. He is an innate motivator who inspires others with his positive attitude, enthusiasm and presentation about EOS.
Arne Pohlman - Founder and CEO, FOCUSECONOMICS

THE 3 PILLARS OF EOS

- ✓ VISION
Align the team 100% around the vision.
- ✓ TRACTION
Be more effective, focused and accountable.
- ✓ HEALTHY
Develop a cohesive and functional management team.

EOS has been fundamental to be able to double our turnover to almost 30mio. We have been able to increase team commitment and employee satisfaction. EOS has been invaluable for the growth of our company.
